CHATEAU LA GRAULA

This property is located in Landerrouat, at the eastern end of the Bordeaux region. It has belonged to the Bessette family since 1971. Jean-Paul and Alice are devoted to their vineyard and their production. Their son Mathieu, holder of a BTS in viti-oenology, joins them to perpetuate the family know-how, to perpetuate the quality of the work and to bring a new impetus. Thanks to the perfect care given to cultivation, harvesting and vinification, the resulting wines have character.

Intensely aromatic, the nose opens with notes of ripe fruit, evolving spicy notes of nutmeg. Fresh menthol aromas punctuate the bouquet. The wine weaves a gorgeous palate from the onset, revealing great scale and aromatic richness, especially delicious notes of black fruits and spices. With its beautiful structure, creamy texture and velvety, mouth-coating tannins, the wine provides a feeling of indulgence. The end of the palate is marked by a great finesse, stretching into a long finish. A magnificent vintage of Château Mouton Rothschild.

The refined and elegant nose reveals fruity wild blackberry and bilberry aromas. Notes of toast, liquorice and blond tobacco then emerge to fill out a rich and complex range of aromas. The fresh, full-bodied and slightly saline attack shows great intensity, opening on smooth and creamy tannins which enfold a silky texture lifted by a touch of minerality. The impression on the palate is very full, rich in ripe fruit and peppery spice flavours. An exceptionally long finish concludes a remarkably balanced wine.

CHATEAU CLERC MILON

From an exceptional terroir, Pastourelle de Clerc Milon is the second wine of Château Clerc Milon, an 1855 Classified Growth at Pauillac. Made with grapes from selected vines on the famous estate, it is made and bottled with the same painstaking care. The grapes are harvested in small open crates then fermented in the Château Clerc Milon vat house and the wines are matured in oak barrels in the traditional manner. The particular attraction of Pastourelle de Clerc Milon, a round and supple wine, lies in the rich elegance of its aromas and flavours.

CHATEAU d'ARMAILHAC

CHATEAU HAUT-BAGES MONPELOU

Cru Bourgeois

Château Haut-Bages Monpeloou is considered as the "young brother" of Château Batailley. It was formerly one of the three Château Duhart Milon's vineyards. Separated and renovated by Marcel Borie in 1948, it has been managed as an independent property since that time. Emile Castéja, Marcel Borie's son-in-law, succeeded him and began to manage the winery. Today, the vineyard is managed by Château Batailley's technical team. The wine produced is elegant and structured thanks to the particular attention and care for grape varieties.

CLARENCE DILLON WINES

The first vines appeared on the gravel hillsides of Haut-Brion in the first century AD. In 1521, Château Haut-Brion became the first Bordeaux vineyard to be named after its terroir, instead of the owner or the parish, making the estate the first luxury wine brand in the world. This led Haut-Brion to earn the rare distinction of Premier Grand Cru Classé (Classified First Growth) in the 1855 classification, the only cru outside the Médoc to receive this prestigious title.

Aroma: Ripe and concentrated. After swirling in the glass, it becomes more complex with hints of very ripe but not excessively so red and black fruit. There are also liquorice nuances and a soupçon of clove.

PALATE: The wine starts out with a very soft mouth feel and immediately shows tremendous volume and depth in every respect, with flavours reminiscent of ripe fruit and cocoa beans. The long aftertaste features mocha and slightly bitter coffee nuances. Barrel ageing will undoubtedly bring out more of this wine's greatness and confirm its place among the finest vintages of Château Haut-Brion.

CHATEAU LARRIVET HAUT-BRION

From 1840 to today, the notoriety of Château Larrivet Haut-Brion has continued to grow. First "Château de Canolle", then "La Rivette", then successively "La rivette", and "Brion-Larrivet", it was only from 1874 that the property acquired its almost definitive name. Then named "Château Haut-Brion Larrivet", it belongs to Ernest Laurent, a merchant from Place de Bordeaux. A journey through time takes us back to 1898, a fabulous year when the famous Féret guide classified the Château's wines as "exceptional vintages" of Graves. In 1929, the property finally found its name: Château Larrivet Haut-Brion. In 1987, the Gervoson family acquired Château Larrivet Haut-Brion and set about restoring its former glory till today.

The middle palate is full-bodied and tight-knit, going into a long aftertaste.

The fruity flavours are accompanied by discreet, elegant oak. 2016 is fresh, fruity, remarkably well-focused and well-structured. It also displays a depth never before achieved by this estate.

Aroma: Ripe and fairly intense bouquet of crunchy red fruit (cherry). The oak is already well-integrated.

PALATE: Quite smooth on the palate, immediately going on to reveal excellent fruit. It develops softly on the palate with plenty of tannin, but that is rich and never aggressive. The 2016 Vintage of Dragon de Quintus is unquestionably the most full and complete made since 2011.

CHATEAU LA CROIX DU CASSE

POMEROL

The vineyard of Chateau Haut Madrac spreads out over plots bordering those of Chateau Lynch-Moussas over a gravelly slope in the commune of Saint Sauveur. The plots are adjacent to Pauillac. A lot of care is brought to the vineyard and to wine-making to obtain a wine full of character and elegance. It is the technical team of Château Lynch-Moussas who monitors this property.
